CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Upholding the Vision of Andhra Christian College, the teaching - learning process aims at achieving academic excellence and empowerment of students. The college is affiliated to Acharya Nagarjuna University, Guntur it strives to incorporate relevant content beyond the set curriculum. The flexibility to opt from a range of subjects is facilitated under the CBCS system. The faculty have adopted interactive student - centric methods, which aims at achieving the Learning Objectives stated at the outset of each semester. The Central and Department Seminar libraries are a storehouse of both books which are accessible to the students. Continuous internal assessments-tutorials, term papers and presentations of individuals are conducted. Regular mentoring and remedial classes help identify learning gaps and address these for advanced and slow learners. A structured system motivated by the principal ensures decentralization and smooth functioning of the institution. Regular department meetings ensure monitoring of the implementation of curriculum delivery and organize allied events. Interface meetings of faculty and parents and orientation for new entrants encourage active participation of all stakeholders.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The college follows the academic calendar issued by the University and Commissionerate of Collegiate Education (CCE) and executes it rigorously.

The College Management prepares a college level academic calendar that drives much of day-to-day business of the college. The college academic calendar incorporates the tentative plan of action of the college with all the academic activities that would be taken up during the academic year in line with the university academic calendar.

Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE): As an affiliated institution of Acharya Nagarjuna University, evaluation norms of the university are followed. The university has adopted major reform in evaluation by introducing the Credit based grading system from the academic year 2016-17 and the institute has adopted the same. As per the ANU regulations, two internal midterm exams will be conducted. The marks allotted for internal exams are 25 and for external exams are 75. In this framework, the college conducts internal exams. Internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and variety.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The college adopts different teaching strategies to meet the needs of students of different learning levels.

Their participation in the classroom activities, or their performance in the first continuous internal assessments (CIA) can be used as criteria to identify and categorize students with a view to devising different strategies for curricular transaction and to providing scaffolding for meaningful learning experiences.

Students are usually streamed into three categories on the basis of pedagogical convenience. They are

1. Advanced learners or high achievers who are quite visible,
2. Average learners who are often but not always dependent on teachers, and
3. Slow learners who need extra help outside the classroom.

The College adopts different strategies for High Achievers/High Ability Students such as Motivation to strive for higher goals.

Provided with additional inputs for better career planning and growth through offering special coaching for higher education and competitive examinations, Encouragement to participate in group discussions, technical quizzes to develop analytical and problem-solving abilities in them and thereby, to improve their presentation skills and Strategies for Slow Learners such as Compensatory teaching, Remedial teaching etc.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

To cater the needs of students with different learning abilities, our college follow different teaching methodologies. The teaching learning process of the institution is made student centric by providing a inductive learning environment. In this process, the teaching creates a positive ambience in the classroom so that both slow and advanced learners can involve actively in the learning process.

The Choice-Based Credit Systems with Outcome Based Education model followed by the institution can impart adequate skills and positive attitude in the student centric learning.

Experiential Learning: Experiential Learning is the process of learning by doing. Practical learning exposure is given to students by hands-on laboratory experiments in all science stream courses. Internship is incorporated in the curriculum of revised CBSC pattern for all students from the academic year 2020-21 .

Participative Learning: Participative Learning methods are used to encourage students to get involved in their learning process actively. The participative learning techniques implemented in the institution include Seminars with power point presentations.

Expert lecturers and workshops.

Quiz and other competitions by departments.

Field trips by departments of biological sciences.

Need based industrial visits.

Herbal Plants Exhibition by Department of Botany.

Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode.

Mechanism of internal assessment:

Schedule of Mid Examination and assignment is given in Academic calendar by the university which is displayed well in advance before commencement of session.

Evaluation method comprises of internal examinations held progressively during the semester and is designed to check and report the periodic performance of the student.

All the records and data bank of attendance in internal Examinations, Question papers, valued answer sheets/copies, summary of marks sheets, are properly maintained by the teachers for academic monitoring/academic audit.

There is complete transparency in the internal assessment for each assessment method as described below

Mid Examinations:

Valuation is done by the respective subject teacher within two days .

Answer sheets are shown to all the students and answers are also discussed with the students.

Practical Examination:

Evaluation is done with transparency based on different parameters like Teachers Assessment,

Practical Records, Performance and Viva-Voce.

Assignments:

Assignments questions are discussed with students. The students submit assignments.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

2.5.2: Mechanism for Grievances:

Mechanism to deal with examination related grievances:

College Level:

Ø If a student is not able to appear for examination due to medical or any genuine reason examination is conducted for that student as per norms, provided that he/she submits application with proper documents.

Ø The grievances of the students with reference to assessment are made clear by showing his/her performance in the answer sheet.

Ø The answer sheet of such student is assessed by the faculty once again in the presence of the student. Any corrections in the total of marks or assessment of answer books as identified by students are immediately done by the faculty members.

Ø Any student who is not satisfied with the assessment and award of marks may approach the concern HOD who can intervene and seek opinion of another course Teacher.

Ø The Institute follows open evaluation system where the student performance is displayed on the notice board and the same is informed to the parents.

University level:

Ø With reference to evaluation, if the student scores less mark than expected, he/she can apply for revaluation of his/her answer script after paying the prescribed fee.

Ø University provides the photocopy of answer sheets to students regarding any grievances with reference to evaluation. Student can apply for revaluation if he/she feels that evaluation is not correct

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

The Institute has well defined learning outcomes. The College has a proper mechanism of communication of the learning outcomes of the Programs and Courses, which includes Hard Copy of syllabi and course/programme Outcomes are available in the respective departments for ready reference to the teachers and students. Students are oriented about the programme outcomes at the induction programme conducted at the beginning of each academic year. Each subject teacher spends a minimum three hours to create awareness among the students about course outcomes at the beginning of each semester. Copy of Curriculum and Outcomes of Programs and Courses are also uploaded on the college website.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Methodology for Calculating PO Attainment
 The Program Outcomes (POs)/Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs) are the qualities that must be imbibed in the graduates by the time of completion of their program. At the end of each program, the PO/PSOs assessment is done from the CO attainment of all curriculum components. The PSOs are framed based on the guidelines of Learning outcomes. For every Course, there are number of outcomes to be achieved at the end of the course. This outcome is usually a combination of main course content and may cover more than one topic. All course outcomes shall have linkage to programme outcomes in such a way that the strongest relation has the weight 3 and the weakest relation is 1.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

The vision of the institution is to provide holistic and quality education and to inculcate Christian values, empowering them with good character and a strong personality, to foster a spirit of service and patriotism, to instil an abiding sense of respect towards the sacredness of the human personality. Motivate and inspire academic excellence, to provide career guidance and counselling and training in skills employing a proper blend of conventional methods of teaching and e-Learning, prerequisite for employability both in the public and private sectors. The college management is headed by the principal and is involved in coordinating the functions of the college. Various committees comprising members of teaching and non-teaching faculty are involved in curricular and co-curricular affairs and administrative functions of the institution. Internal Quality Assurance Cell ensure adherence to quality in all aspects of the College's functioning. The teaching-learning mechanism is reviewed at several levels within the institution during staff meetings. The IQAC works with different divisions to find areas of improvement and also to document and suggest new changes and improvements for quality enhancement. Mechanisms in place for periodic review of administrative and academic areas like Feedback from students, parents, alumni and staff.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

Andhra Christian college is exercising decentralization and participative management in Academic and Administrative wings for the effectiveness and smooth functioning of the institution. The Principal is the head of the institution for all the delegates, who actively decentralizes the work among the teaching and the non-teaching staff of the institution. Various committees have been constituted with faculty as conveners and members to organise the academics, administration, planning and development effectively and successfully. Regularly under the chairmanship of the Principal, the committee members meet to share their ideas and pass on resolutions for the proper implementation and progression. This hierarchical structure makes sure of delegating the power and allocation of responsibilities for the smooth functioning of the College. Active Participative Management of stakeholders: The institution for its better performance involves all the stakeholders namely educational experts from alumni, parents of the students, Principal, all the faculty members and the students at all levels of its functioning. The institution takes feedback from students, parents, alumni, employers and local people on various curricular, co-curricular aspects, college facilities and other related issues to take further steps for its improvement.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

Performance Appraisal for teaching faculty following the UGC regulation 2010 and amendments thereof, the institution monitors performance appraisal system through submitting of ASAR (Annual Self Appraisal Report) of the teaching staff. The ASAR reflects the details of refresher / orientation courses / workshops etc. that the teacher attended during a particular period as it is deemed mandatory for promotion in the next grade. The teaching performance is computed by reflecting the involvement of the teacher in curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. The evaluation of courses taught and average number of class works in a year are computed. Due consideration is given to the evaluation of innovation for special contributions made by the teacher. The involvement in the welfare of students and community work is given due weightage for monitoring performance. During appraisal the teacher is given an opportunity to pen down any special achievement made by him/her in the field of concerned subject that can upgrade his/her overall performance. The principal then grades the teachers on the overall report and recommends higher authorities for further necessary action. The ASAR's are sought at every step of up gradation / next promotion.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best Practice 1 : Medicinal Plants: The Botany Department of Andhra Christian College has been maintaining a botanical garden and Medicinal Plants Garden for the last three decades. In these two gardens valuable ornamental and medicinal plants are being cultivated. Many valuable Ayurvedic and Homeopathic Medicinal plants are cultivated; The Department is regularly introducing new varieties of plants periodically. The Department strives to inculcate the awareness of medicinal plants among the students by labeling the medicinal plants and their uses.

Best Practice 2: As part of the institutional responsibility towards the society our college believes in serving the poor and the needy. Our students are taught to be charitable and kind to the unfortunate destitutes. Students are exposed to the hardships, agonies and needs of the underprivileged and are taught to build emotional and social responsibilities. Students along with the faculty members visited the Missionaries of Charity, Nirmal Hriday Bhavan, a home for the dying destitute and abandoned children, situated at Babu Jagjivan Ram Nagar, Sarada Colony, Guntur.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

Andhra Christian College was a pioneer institution in enlightening and educating the society in the state of Andhra Pradesh in general and in the Guntur district in particular. It was established in the year 1885 by Christian missionaries with a mission to provide education to the wide cross section of people. The college offers education to all students irrespective of Gender, Caste, Creed or Religion as this is established way back in 1885. The education facilities were lacking in those days. The institution focused on the underprivileged people especially with regard to caste, gender, and economical status. The vision of the institution is to offer its services to the backward and the suppressed classes of society. It provides not only the academic training but helps to improve the overall personality of the student community. Rationality and Equality were given priority. This institution was centrally situated with good infrastructure. It gives good ambiance for a comfortable study of students. Value education was given equal emphasis. Students were given the community awareness and taught about their responsibilities. Teacher student relationship is one the hallmarks of the college.

7.3.2 - Plan of action for the next academic year

In order to grow with the changing needs of the times, Andhra Christian College tries its best to stay with the latest developments in the teaching learning sphere and upgrade infrastructural facilities in a timely manner. Infrastructural facilities are being augmented with funds sanctioned by RUSA. Preparation for Competitive Examinations are part of the expansion process. New student development programmes are being considered for the betterment of all students. Recognizing the importance of on-the-job training, the College wishes to enable and encourage students to pursue internships. The College is in the process of enhancing the available ICT facilities, to aid both teachers and students in the teaching-learning process. To enhance the ambience in an ecofriendly manner, the college plans to landscape the open space in the college.
