The International Women's Day 2020 celebration, held on March 8th at J.D.SEELEM SEMINAR HALL, was a significant event aimed at highlighting women's achievements and advocating for gender equality. This year's theme, "Each for Equal," emphasized the role of collective action in driving change.

Event Highlights:

1. Opening Remarks: The event began with opening remarks by our college principal, a respected figure in zoology. The speaker underscored the importance of unity and collaboration in achieving gender equality.
2. Keynote Address: The keynote address was delivered by Dr. M. Kusuma Kumari who discussed the theme "Each for Equal." The speaker highlighted the progress made in various sectors and the work that still needs to be done to achieve true equality.
3. Panel Discussion: A dynamic panel discussion on "Gender Equality in the Modern Workplace" featured. The panelists shared their insights and experiences on navigating challenges and implementing strategies to foster inclusivity.
4. Workshops: Interactive workshops were conducted on empowerment, leadership, and career development. These sessions provided attendees with practical tools and strategies to enhance their personal and professional lives.
5. Cultural Performances: The event also included cultural performances that showcased the diverse talents of women in the arts. Highlights included.
6. Networking Session: The celebration concluded with a networking session, offering participants the opportunity to connect, share experiences, and build supportive relationships.

Conclusion: The International Women's Day 2020 celebration was a resounding success, bringing together individuals from different backgrounds to celebrate women's achievements and advocate for gender equality. The event's discussions and activities fostered a sense of community and empowerment among attendees.

Acknowledgments: We extend our sincere gratitude to all participants, speakers, performers, and organizers who contributed to the success of this event. Your efforts and dedication are greatly appreciated.
