GENDER AUDIT

2020-2021

A comprehensive evaluation process aimed at understanding the gender variation in the campus was conducted by the Audit team appointed by the Management for the year 2020-2021.

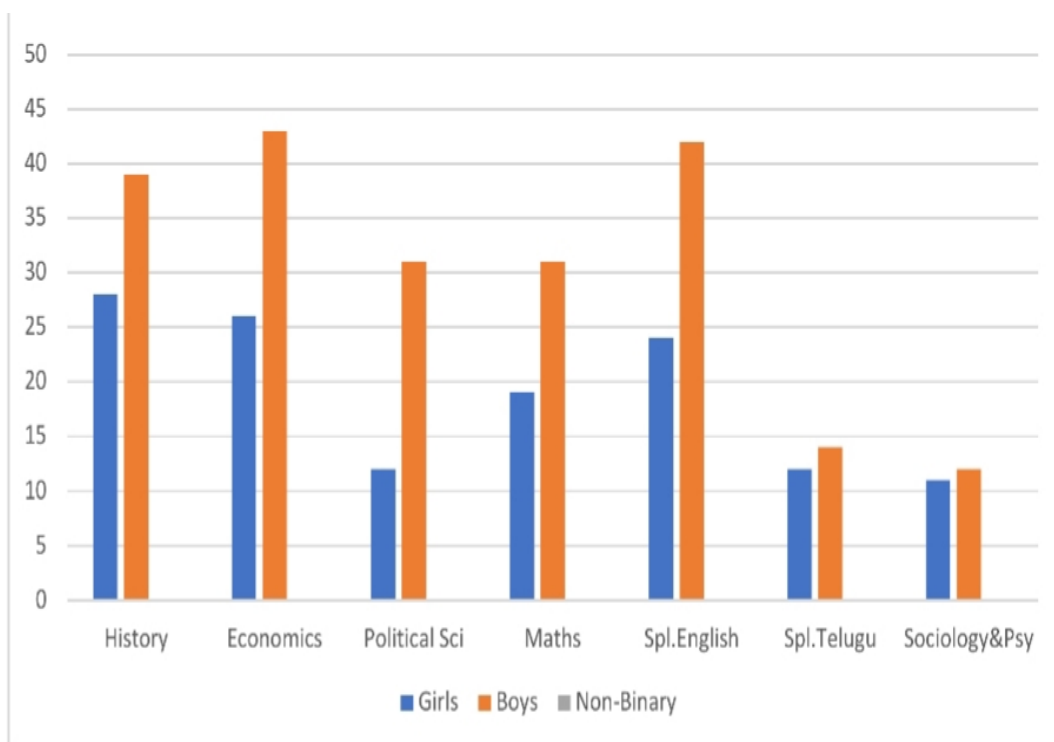

The findings are as follows as shown in the respective diagrams:

Gender Variation in B. Sc Courses 2020-2021

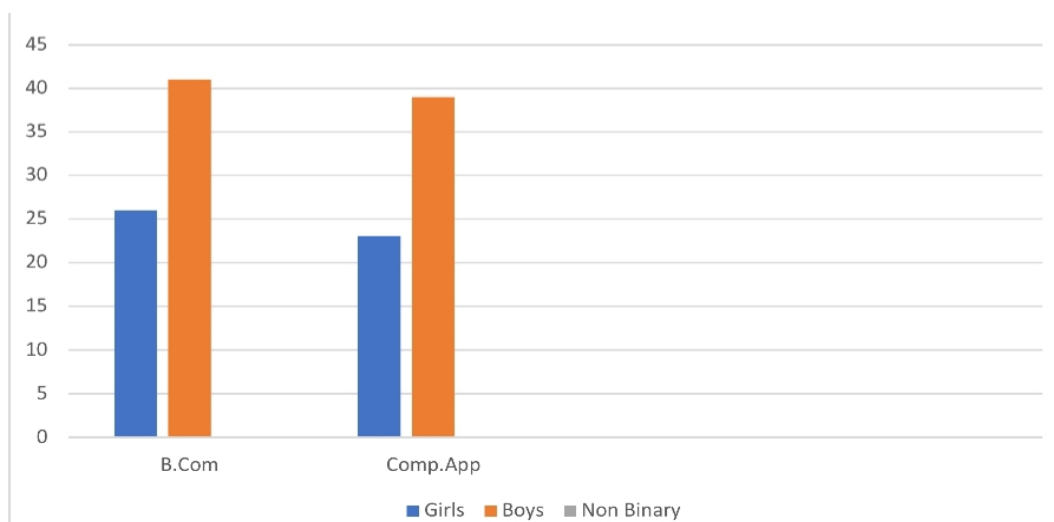

In the Science Graduate Courses it has been noted that the number of boys exceed the number of girls in all the sub -courses

Gender Variation in B.A. Course -2020-2021

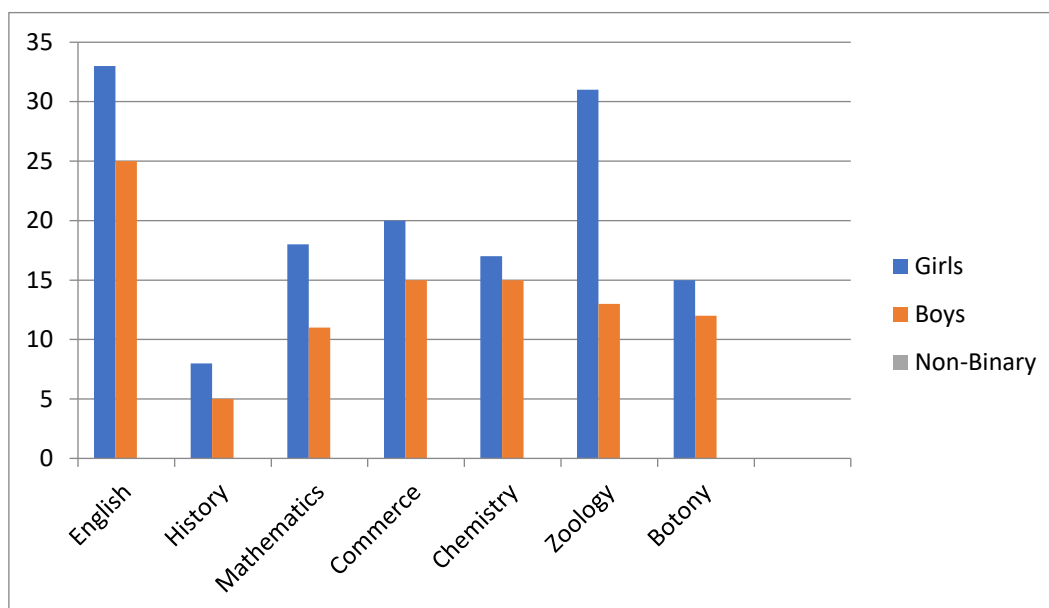

In the Arts Majors, the same trend has been noticed, where the number of boys exceeds the number of girls. In Telugu and Psychology, the numbers are almost equal.

Gender Variation in B.Com Course -2020-2021

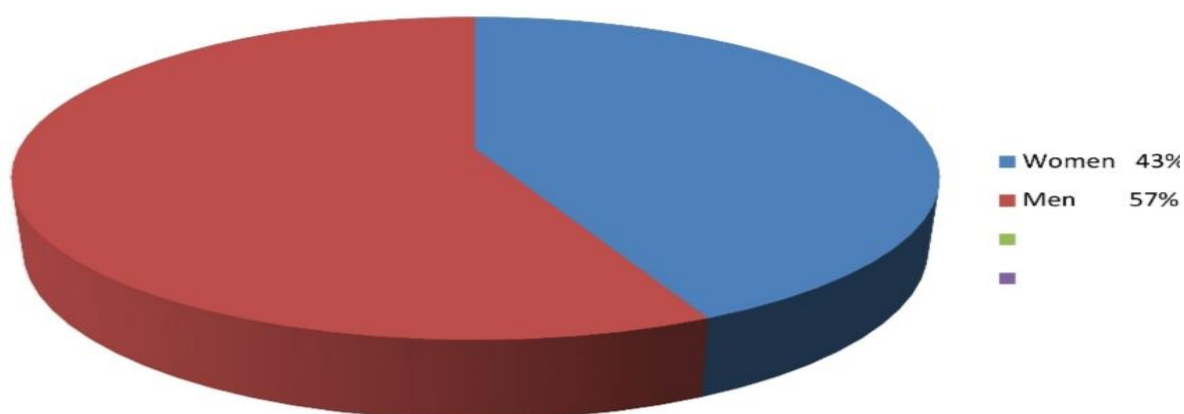

In the Commerce sections also the number of boys exceeds the number of girls.

Gender Variation in Post Graduate courses 2020-2021

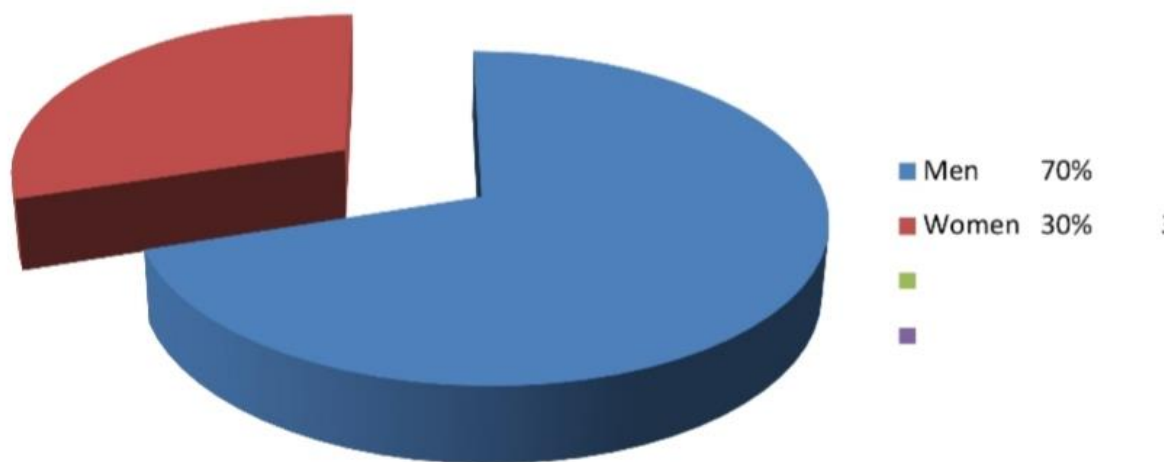

Contrary to the Graduate Courses , the P.G. sections depict a reverse analysis. In this category, the number of girls exceed , compared to the number of boys, showing a positive prospects for the girl community.

Gender Parity -Teaching Staff 2020-2021

In the gender study done on the Teaching Faculty ,it has again been noticed that the number of men staff are a little higher than the women staff in the campus.

Gender Parity Non Teaching Staff 2020-2021

In the study conducted, it has been noted that the number of women occupy 30% of the total Of the staff. The male staff take almost 70% of the category.

Recommendations:

Necessary steps and strategies could be implemented to raise the bar of the women community to give equal opportunities to women in the campus.
